

SUMMARY

Under general supervision of clinical management, the RN provides skilled nursing care to assigned patients and directs Licensed Practical Nurses and Nursing Aides to provide quality care to all of the residents of the facility. Assures compliance with nursing standards, federal, state, and local government regulations, and company clinical policies. Provides goal directed care leading to specific outcomes.

ESSENTIAL DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES include the following.

- ➔ Provides professional nursing care to assigned patients.
- ➔ Assesses patient's physical and emotional status, level of competency,
- ➔ Provides information on patient rights, reimbursement procedures, and patient/family rights
- ➔ .Assesses and evaluates patient/client's status, reviews and implements plan of care, reevaluates needs, and revises plan of care as necessary.
- ➔ Observes patient for changes in condition and communicates/coordinates care with attending physician and clinical management.
- ➔ Initiates and applies appropriate preventative, therapeutic and rehabilitative nursing procedures and techniques as ordered by the physician.
- ➔ Administers medications and intravenous solutions.
- ➔ Assists the patient with the activities of daily living and facilitates the patient's efforts toward self-sufficiency and independence.
- ➔ Maintains patient clinical records and reports as required.
- ➔ Ensures Licensed Practical Nurses and Aides provide quality care.
- ➔ Participates in on-call rotation as necessary.

This job description is not intended to be all-inclusive. The RN will be expected to perform other reasonable related duties as assigned by management.

SUPERVISORY RESPONSIBILITIES

Supervises patient's care and is responsible for the overall direction, coordination, and evaluation of patient care, outcomes, and all staff assigned to patient.

QUALIFICATIONS

To perform this job successfully, an individual must be able to perform each essential duty satisfactorily. The requirements listed below are representative of the knowledge, skill, and/or ability required.

Reasonable accommodations may be made to enable individuals with disabilities to perform the essential functions.

EDUCATION AND/OR EXPERIENCE

Licensed Registered Nurse in state of Maryland practice. Graduate of an accredited school of nursing. BSN degree preferred. At least one year of professional nursing experience in patient care required.

LANGUAGE SKILLS

Ability to solve practical problems and deal with a variety of concrete variables in situations where only limited standardization exists. Ability to interpret a variety of instructions furnished in written, oral, diagram, or schedule form.

OTHER SKILLS AND ABILITIES Nursing skills, observation skills, communication skills, supervision skills, knowledge of SNF and government regulations. Good physical and mental health. Caring attitude, empathy, tact, patience.

PHYSICAL DEMANDS The physical demands described here are representative of those that must be met by an employee to successfully perform the essential functions of this job. Reasonable accommodations may be made to enable individuals with disabilities to perform the essential functions. The work requires moderately heavy physical exertion on a regular and recurring basis such as: extensive driving, assisting patient in transfer activities (wheelchair, to bed, to tub, to commode) and providing substantial support to individuals in ambulation therapy